

“Wine is bottled poetry”

Robert Louis Stevenson

The last 12 months have been so exciting for the team at Wedgwood. Not only were we listed in the 'Sunday Times' top 100 restaurants, we were also presented with a wine award from the Scottish Licensing Trade. The award was based on how the wine list is put together, the differing grape varieties, pricing, staff training and most of all a love of wine! We were absolutely delighted and very proud! September 2016 also bought us the Food and Travel reader awards of the Best Restaurant in the UK outside of London.

As ever, our commitment is to keep evolving as a restaurant, one of these aspects is to change and update the wine list regularly, to stay on the lookout for new and exciting wines. Our recent additions see a very exciting Brunello di Montalcino and a wonderful Numanthia from Toro in Spain!

Our passion for wine is driven by our desire to travel and over the last few years we have been to some wonderful wine producing regions and countries, this has enabled us to meet some truly passionate producers.

We are extremely proud to be still listing our own personal Rioja Reserva from the Altanza winery in Rioja. We met the wine producers in 2009 on a trip to Spain, with a mutual respect and a love for their wine we brought home our first barrel of wine for the restaurant. As we come into the Autumn of 2016, we are enjoying our sixth barrel of Rioja Reserva, a 2008 vintage which is as good as ever.

We have also tasted a lovely Pinot Noir from Volnay in the Côte d'Or, from a wonderful wine producer, Didier Delagrangue, expect earthy and cherry flavours with hints of smoke, please see our French red wine section for more information.

We were also lucky enough to have an opportunity to purchase a barrel of wine from the renowned French wine producer Olivier Leflaive, we have a 2014 vintage of our Montagny 1er Cru to share with you by the glass.

Whenever we taste a new wine for the list, we always try and match it to one of the current dishes on the a la carte menu; a pairing between food and wine can make the whole dining experience that little bit more perfect. We have an extensive a la carte menu but for all those who can't decide, we have introduced a fabulous tasting menu, each course has been matched with an exciting wine and it's a great excuse to try something different!

If you need any guidance in selecting a bottle of wine to complement your meal, please just let one of the team know and we will do our utmost to help you.

Paul and Lisa Wedgwood, February 2017

CHAMPAGNE

	125ml	Bottle
Champagne Janisson et Fils, Brut Tradition NV	£10.00	£60.00
Janisson Brut Tradition is low in production but big on owner's love and attention. Rich with aromas of hazelnut, almond and honey. A special aperitif Champagne!
Champagne Janisson et Fils, Rose NV	£12.00	£70.00
Heavenly aromas of wild strawberries, redcurrants and raspberries, married with touches of vanilla and cinnamon.
Champagne Ruinart Brut NV	£15.00	£90.00
Fresh and fruity with notes of dried fruits, hazelnuts and buttered brioche. A vivacious and lively wine from the oldest Champagne house.
Champagne Ruinart Rose, France, NV		£105.00
This is the oldest "Grande Marque" in Champagne and has a limited availability. It is most definitely one of the best NV rosé champagnes, it is packed with juicy raspberry and strawberry flavours on the palate and is elegant and decadent.
Dom Perignon 2004		£185.00
This cuvée is extraordinarily open and ripe – it hits the palate with such force it is easy to confuse its ripeness with sweetness but then, in Dom Perignon style, it tightens up immensely and finishes with great race and refreshing dryness.

CLUB ALTANZA

Club Altanza

Wine is an integral part of the whole dining experience at Wedgwood the Restaurant and something we are extremely passionate about. When we came across Bodega Altanza whilst in Spain in 2009 we felt there was a strong synergy between ourselves and them. Both Wedgwood the Restaurant and Bodegas Altanza are independent and family owned; passionate about flavours and continually striving to bring enjoyment to others.

Embracing the heritage of Rioja, Bodegas Altanza strives to blend tradition and modernity, producing some superb fruit driven wines. We tasted this wine and thought it was superb, so it seemed only natural that we should try to purchase a barrel and bottle it especially for our customers. After much talk and planning it happened and we trust you will enjoy this wine as much as we do.

Deep and elegant on the nose, lots of black fruit as well as smoky toasted wood aromas. Warm on the palate with a pleasant and long after taste.
